

"All Summer in a Day" by Ray Bradbury: Literary Terms/Devices

Bradbury's style of writing in "All Summer in a Day" is poetic prose.

1. Define the following literary terms and locate at least one example of how Bradbury uses the device in the short story on the page number provided.

2. Explain what effect the use of the figurative language device has on your reading of the story. In other words, why does Bradbury use the technique? How does it enhance your reading of the story? Be specific!!

1. Simile: Definition:

Example (p.192,193, 197)

2. Metaphor: Definition:

Example (p.192, 193,196)

3. Alliteration: Definition:

Example (pg. 195):

Effect:

4 Repetition: Definition:

Example: (pg. 192, pg. 196):

Effect:

5. Personification: Definition:

Example: (pg. 192):

Effect:

6. Hyperbole: Definition:

Example (pg. 192):

Effect: