

Vocabulary All Summer in a Day by Ray Bradbury

1. slackening (adj): making or becoming slower or quieter; less intense
2. vital (adj): extremely important and necessary
3. consequence (noun): something that follows as a result OR something that is of importance or significance
4. surged (verb): to move suddenly and strongly, a rush in a particular direction
5. tumultuously (adverb): unrestrained, noisily, confusingly
6. suspended (verb): to stop something, usually for a short time
7. savor (verb): enjoy something unhurriedly
8. avalanche (noun): a sudden, overwhelming quantity of something
9. solemn (adj): having or showing no joy or humor
10. deprivation (noun): the act of taking something away from somebody or preventing somebody from having something
11. confinement (noun): restraint or limitation within the boundaries or scope of something
12. maniacal (adj): being obsessed or having an excessive and intense interest in or enthusiasm for something

Vocabulary All Summer in a Day by Ray Bradbury

1. slackening (adj): making or becoming slower or quieter; less intense
2. vital (adj): extremely important and necessary
3. consequence (noun): something that follows as a result OR something that is of importance or significance
4. surged (verb): to move suddenly and strongly, a rush in a particular direction
5. tumultuously (adverb): unrestrained, noisily, confusingly
6. suspended (verb): to stop something, usually for a short time
7. savor (verb): enjoy something unhurriedly
8. avalanche (noun): a sudden, overwhelming quantity of something
9. solemn (adj): having or showing no joy or humor
10. deprivation (noun): the act of taking something away from somebody or preventing somebody from having something
11. confinement (noun): restraint or limitation within the boundaries or scope of something
12. maniacal (adj): being obsessed or having an excessive and intense interest in or enthusiasm for something