

Act I, scene i

Read the stage directions and answer the following questions based

1. In what city and country does the play take place?

2. In what sort of building were the rooms that were the hiding place of the Frank family?

3. Based on the context, define:

belfry: _____

carillon: _____

rucksack: _____

4. What sound effects are occasionally heard to show us that this building is located near a church and in a fairly busy city?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

d. _____

5. How is the entrance to the annex disguised?

6. When the curtain rises on the play, what is the month and year?

7. By looking at the scene, how do we know that the rooms have not been used by anyone in many months? _____