Vocabulary: On a separate sheet of paper, write each vocabulary word listed, the word's part of speech, an understandable dictionary definition, and paste in or draw a picture or symbol that you feel represents the word.

gusts   plight   sanity

Comprehension Questions: On a separate sheet of paper, answer each question thoroughly using complete sentences. Be sure to cite text evidence to support your analysis.

1. Who does Lombard suspect is the murderer? Why?

2. Who does Claythorne suspect is the murderer? Why?

3. What items are discovered missing?

4. What steps has Mr. Rogers taken to ensure that there will be no "china-soldier tricks" that night?

5. Who is your prime suspect? Why?

Choose an important quote from the chapter and fill out the chart below:

QUOTE: Write out the quote word for word. Include the page number.
CONTEXT: Who said this? What is happening in the story when it is being said?
MEAN: What does the quote mean? What does it reveal about the characters / conflict / theme?
MATTER: Why is this quote important?

And Then There Were None