

Vocabulary I: The Outsiders

1. content (adj): satisfied, happy, wanting nothing more
2. rarely (adv): infrequently; not often
3. asset (noun): a help/aid; a needed, useful, valuable person or thing
4. slouch (verb): bend over; to sit/stand in a drooping way
5. madras (adj or noun): a piece of cloth having a plaid, striped or checked pattern
6. cowlick (noun): a piece or pieces of hair that stick up in a direction different from the rest of the hair
7. quivering (adj): shaking repeatedly
8. sarcasm (noun): cutting or ironic remark intended to hurt; form of wit that ridicules
9. incredulous (adj): disbelieving; skeptical
10. nonchalantly (adv): acting like or doing something without care; indifferently
11. sophisticated (adj): knowledgeable about the ways of the world and self-confident; complex, advanced
12. elite (adj): aristocratic, rich, affluent, upper or high class
13. resignedly (adv): in a way that suggests giving up
14. unceasingly (adv): never-ending, continually, indefinitely
15. bootleg (adj or noun): to make or sell illegally copied, made or recorded goods or material, originally referring to alcohol/liquor